HOW TO Achieve Our Special Discount 'SIMILAR TO A BURSARY SYSTEM'

PLEASE NOTE:

These are limited to the first 9 approved applications per course/class, these are not automatically allocated.

Course Fee cheques are banked at application approval, then course administration processes continue (cheques are returned if no place is available)

READ THE IMPORTANT DETAILS BELOW:

- (i) Read THE BICCOM POLICIES & SPECIAL POLICY ON FEES
- (ii) Read THE SPECIAL DISCOUNTED FEE OPPORTUNITY that is 'SIMILAR TO A BURSARY SYSTEM'.

You need to make your case why you should succeed in being approved by BICCOM to achieve one of only 9 Special Discounted Places per course / class.

Your written case which forms part of your letter of application & could include

- (a) what it is you can bring to BICCOM (e.g. some reasonably substantial contribution)
- (b) what you can do to support BICCOM (e.g. some reasonably substantial contribution)
- (c) it may include it is the only way to financially afford to do the course
- (d) it may include the course design and part time attendance and this special discount is the only way to have the time to afford to do the course and / or for the implications of location etc
- (e) it may include future aspirations with BICCOM
- (f) it can include anything you wish to say e.g. the good reputation of this College & Clinic etc

We do understand it is natural for most people to want to pay less, do not feel uncomfortable in saying so with the justification of why, be relatively brief.

You make your written case at application with your letter of application.

INITIAL APPLICATION

BICCOM Courses start in autumn (October) most years with an occasional spring start. Attendance is often two consecutive days, at a weekend, once per month approximately. (Requirements vary, occasionally courses may be e.g. Thursday Friday etc).

FIRSTLY. i.e. STEP 1

In your brief, simple application letter include

- (a) basic personal and contact details
- (b) say why you wish to take your chosen course(s)
- (c) confirm you have funds available to pay the course(s) fee(s), include anything else you wish to say

THEN POST to BICCOM College, address as below

OR You can apply directly through our website www.bicom-college.com where you will find BICCOM course details.

OR For those who chose just email the above information to courseapplication@bicom-college.com

Applying via our website OR by email speeds up the application process.
Early application is advised, places are limited. Do ask if you need assistance.

LASTLY. i.e. STEP 2

I.E. LATER ON, when the CD1 admin process document is forwarded to you with FIP2011 reference document, read, complete and return the CONFIRMATION 'TICK-LIST' DOCUMENT CD1 plus the indicated items.

POST TO: BICCOM College, The Lodge Acupuncture, 59 Whitham Rd, Sheffield S10 2SL South Yorkshire, England UK.
